"Daddy, what is that 'queer-looking crack' in your glasses?"

Observing daughter is not the only one who notices that "queerlooking crack" in Daddy's glasses. Everybody notices it. It mars his appearance; it makes him look old.

KRYPTOK GLASSES
THE INVISIBLE BIFOCALS

Kryptoks (pronounced Crip-tocks), without that conspicuous age-revealing "crack" or seam, give the convenience of NEAR and FAR vision in one pair of glasses. There is not the slightest trace of a seam or hump. The two powers (the lower for close work, and the upper for distance) are joined together in one solid, smooth, crystal clear piece. Notwithstanding the fact that Kryptoks look exactly like singlevision glasses, they enable you to see both near and far with equally keen vision. That's why they are known everywhere as the "invisible bifocals."

Call and let us give you further information concerning these universally approved bifocals.

Wake Up! Stop Knocking—Boost

Your customer or client don't care to hear a tale of woe. Tell them something good and cheerful. Don't decry the weather, the business situation or even the League of Nations. Clean up your old shop, brighten the windows if nothing else; advertise if you feel like it in the Times; if you don't, at least have life enough to let people know you are trying to do business. Cut out all "H. C. L." complaints, make the best of what we have and be a good fellow, and your business and all the street will improve. If you must be a crab, go to the morgue to do your crabbing; don't ruin yourself and the town by continually complaining.

Mayorality and aldermanic election next Tuesday.

Dr. A. M. Richardson, of 6506 Yale Ave., for many years in the city health department, dropped dead on the sidewalk at 65th St. and Lowe Ave. Monday morning. He was 77 years of age, had been in the employ of the city since 1901 and before that owned a drug store at 65th St. and Wentworth Ave. Funeral services were held at the home Wednesday and the remains taken to Ohio, Illinois for burial.

Vagrants and Parole Men the Criminals

The present saturnale of crime, highway robbery, and violence is an awkward advertisement for our city. During a political campaign it would be "bad form" to raid the pool rooms and other criminal resorts, yet after each crime where the police really want the criminal they "frisk" these places, and give them the "once over" in search of the criminals. Why not raid them regularly and lock up those who cannot give a satisfactory account of themselves? No honest man would object to telling his means of livelihood, and the other kind are the ones the police are after if they are in earnest. No man is allowed to carry a weapon to defend himself, yet everyone of these thugs is a walking arsenal. There is no use talking of new laws, we have plenty of good ones if they but be enforced, and honest co-operation between the police and prosecutors would soon rid the city of many criminals and incidentally of a mighty bad reputation.

Mrs. Wm. Trow, of E. 66th St., entertained the Fancy Work Club at her home on Wednesday afternoon.

Have your sittings now for those Easter photos. Jarvis Weed, 329 W. 69th St. (adv-tf)

INVEST YOUR MONEY WISELY

6% The safest forms of investments have always been real estate mortgages secured by farm land. This is proved by the fact that the life insurance companies—the largest investors in the world—prefer farm loans over any other form of security. Producing farm land is better security than city realty. The principal value of city property rests in improvements which sooner or later become antiquated or unsuited to the needs of a changing neighborhood. The unforseen influx of undesirable neighbors adversely affects the value of city real estate. Farm land is free from both of these menaces, for every year shows a steady advance in the average value of farm property. It is this constantly increasing security which makes farm mortgages so desirable. For years we have been making farm mortgages and selling them to conservative investors in Chicago. We collect interest and principal without charge. That we have succeeded in building up a reputation for care and conservatism is apparent from the fact that we now have several hundred customers in Chicago and others in over 30 states.

Send for our Illustrated Booklet describing these safe investments.

Hugh A. Taggart died at his home, 6215 Princeton Ave., Thursday and his funeral occured Monday from St. Bernard's church, interment being at Calvary cemetery. "Hughey", as he was familiarly known, was raised in Englewood and was one of the brightest minds of politics in the old town of Lake days. Illness has confined him to his home of late years. He is the last of a former prominent family and leaves no family of his own.

We consider ourselves fortunate in being able to obtain our former connection on the famous Navy Standard Smokeless Mine Run Coal. This coal really needs no introduction to those that have used it before. But for the benefit of our prospective buyers, will say this coal is very high in heat units, low in ash and absolutely pure, gives the greatest degree of satisfaction in any steam, hot water or industrial plants. We want you to try a ton or a load so you can see for yourself. Once tried and you will use no other. Delivery made anywhere, we are as near to you as your phone. Call us up. Stewart 70. J. B. Mr. Harry Moore, 88th and Union Ave., is on a business trip to Louisville, Ky

A bad case of diptheria gave Norman Anderson of 7659 Sangamon St. quite a tussle the past two weeks.

Accompanied by her month-old baby son, Mrs Thomas Kirbylof 7926 Aberdeen St., has returned home. Both are very well and happy.

The C. G. Settergrens have sold their home at 7241 Princeton Ave. and will live in the neighborhood south of Jackson Park.

With her pretty little baby daughter, Mrs. Paul Swigert of 914 78th St., has come home and is receiving the happiest felicitations of her neighbors.

Mrs. Ed Flynn, who has been confined to her home by illness, is entirely recovered, greatly to the delight of her many friends.

A building permit has been issued to Mr. Carl Nardell, 8246 Elizabeth St, to build a home at 8246 Elizabeth St.

Mr Richard Knight, 7638 Emerald Ave, was laid to rest in Mt. Olivet cemetery on Tuesday morning. Requiem mass was sung at St. Leo's church.

Robert Straub, 8924 Morgan St., and his cousin, Edward Kay, 9044 Carpenter St., both had birthday celebrations last week.

The following overseas lads will soon return from Newport News: Thomas Ellis, 7837 Lowe Ave.; Sergt. Thomas J. Driscoll, 7529 Sangamon St; James McCarthy, 7833 Emerald Ave.

Robert Walsh, 8542 Carpenter St., is at Camp Grant and will arrive home within another week.

Capt. Paul Howe, 10233 Wood St., spent the week end with his parents while enroute from Camp Kearney, Calif., to the Medical School in Washington, D. C.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered in the Seventh Presbyterian Church, Sunday morning, April 6th. An opportunity will be offered to unite with the church at that time.

Won't our Gresham subscribers please phone or send news by mail to our correspondent, Mrs. Pauline F. Palmer, 9521 Bishop St., Beverly 2097? It is impossible to cover all the territory and we want to put in all your news. Won't you help us by sending it in?

The annual Congregational meeting of the Seventh Presbyterian church will be held Wednesday evening, April 2nd, 1919, at 8 p. m. in the church. Reports of the past year's work will be given by officers of the various organizations, and the annual election of officers will be held. A prayer meeting beginning at 7:30 p. m. will precede the annual meeting, and refreshments and a social time will follow.

Make your high rent buy you a home. The two-flat building, 7705 Normal Ave., on a large lot, 50x133 feet, is for sale for $300 down and balance monthly. Large light rooms, attic and porches, all modern conveniences, electric light, gas range, hot water heaters, ice boxes and furnaces in each flat. Storm windows and screens. 1919 decorating all done. Little expense. Telephone Normal 848. (Adv.-4-11)

Dr. Weber, Gresham's popular physician, in service overseas, has sent a corking jolly letter to one of his friends. He says: "I suppose the doctors were all busy with the flu. What's the matter? Can't they cure it? We use fresh air, some sort of a science and some pills left over from the Spanish American war, and just think, the boys got well in spite of us." He says he expects to be back within a few weeks and try some of his cures on Gresham friends.

ENGLEWOOD THEATRE

"The French Frolics" all new 1919 edition reaches into the heart of real burlesque with its "Frenchie-Girlie" atmosphere and burlesque patrons of Englewood Theatre, where "The French Frolics" will be seen all next week with daily matinees, everyone will agree that the entertainment outclasses the classiest from curtain to curtain. "The French Frolics" with its never failing fountain of beauty girls of the French type, and music of the infectious brand, and its high lights of drollery and sparkles of wit, provides an entertainment that is actually a tonic to restore youth. Vivacious, dark-eyed beauties, perfectly endowed by nature, have been selected for the big chorus of the show, and the book, music and dances and effects bringing into striking foreground the capabilities and the rich gifts bestowed upon these young women. Notable among the many features of "The French Frolics" this season is the illuminated glass running board, which extends far into the orchestra circle, and upon this the chorus comes out for a number of novel singing and dancing numbers, touched up with the latest of burlesque discoveries. Lena Daley, the "Smile Girl," live-wire soubrette, who is copied by many but equalled by none, and Harry "Hello Jake" Fields, the comedian, whose barbed humor makes the laughing continuous all the while he is on the stage, top the cast. Miss Daley has a stunning wardrobe this season. The latest fashions, emphasized, make up this wardrobe, which is admitted to be the most extensive and elaborate in burlesque. Mr. Fields always in the van of comedians, has a part which affords the greatest opportunity of his career, and he handles it in his inimitable way.

MARLOWE HIPPODROME

The Marlowe has a reputation that few houses may equal. The programs each evening are of special features that are sure to please every taste. The manager, "Doc" White, aims to make the Marlowe the house of varieties, and every one of the best feature pictures is booked as soon as released for their special Mondays. Readers of the Times may keep track of the best films in the world by simply watching the bookings of the Marlowe. Tuesdays they have their dance and song contests as well as pictures and this is one of the pleasantest evenings of the week. Every Wednesday they offer "Houdini" in "The Master Mystery" and other talent of the latest world fame. Thursday comes the wonderful cabaret review and pictures; and Friday, Saturday and Sunday the all-star vaudeville shows with a special matinee every Saturday for the children. The Marlowe is open continuously each evening from 6:45 to 11 P. M. and Sundays from 2 to 11 P. M.

Monday, March 31st. Rex Beach's tremendous drama of Alaska "The Brand" with Kay Laurell and Russell Simpson. The greatest of all thrillers, "The Brand" by Rex Beach, was never more compelling than in this great drama of redblooded Americans. The story is one of great power and appeal. It grips and thrills as the

NATIONAL THEATRE

"Twin Beds," Margaret Mayo and Salisbury Field's highly amusing laugh festival, will be the offering at the National Theatre, beginning tomorrow night for a week's engagement, with Sunday, Thursday and Saturday matinees, to renew the highly satisfactory impression of its previous visit to the Olympic Theater, this city. Spreading sunshine and laughter with its refreshing and appealing story, it makes an entertainment that keeps an audience always keyed up in expectancy.

Theatrical records attest that "Twin Beds" is one of the emphatic standing comedy succcesses. It is a healthy amusing piece of hilarity which earned and held its long public endorsement by its incessently dramatic swift moving action; and its carefully, skillfully drawn characters, all of them less amusing than they are true.

The story is built around the difficulties of three married couples living in a fashionable apartment house, with all the neighbors, desirable and undesirable, always under foot, first achieve neighborliness and then has it trust upon them and finally move to escape it, without any remarkable success.

Miss Bolton will be assisted by an exceptional cast of farceurs including Roy MacNicol, Virginia Fairfax, R. M. D'Angelo, Katheryn Mills, Thomas H. Manning and Lucille Beckett, all of them especially gifted for the roles devised by the authors and they have been so long associated in the comedy that they are enabled to present a remarkable effective performance.

E. A. R. THEATRE

Saturday, March 29th. Matinee 2 to 4 P. M. Evening 7 to 11 P. M. Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne in "The Poor Rich Man." A breezy romance of New York and Arizona. Also "Lure of the Circus," No. 12, and Allied War Review.

Sunday, March 30th. Continuous 2 to 11 P. M. Charles Ray in "The Girl Dodger." Also Bray Pictograph and Billy Parson in "Dad's Knockout", a Capital Comedy. Added attraction at the matinee only, Pearl White in "The Lightning Raider," No. 8.

Monday, March 31st. Dorothy Gish in "Boots." It's the same funny Dorothy Gish who played in "Hearts "The Hope Chest." Also Bray Pictograph, Pathe News and a Christie Comedy.

Tuesday, April 1st. Shirley Mason in "The Winning Girl." Winning "Stanley" was one thing. Winning his haughty, aristocratic old mother was another. Also Billy West in of the World," "Battling Jane" and 'Ship Ahoy" and Educational Weekly.

Wednesday, April 2nd. May Allison in "Her Inspiration." The story is laid in New York and the mountains of Kentucky. It has mystery, surprises, and an ending that is as unexpected as it is pleasing. Also Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew in their latest comedy "Romance and Rings," and Pathe News.

Thursday and Friday, April 3rd and 4th. Marguerite Clark in "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch." "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" shows Marguerite Clark at her best—as the lovable, comical little lady who is "always trying to do things for other people."

ETHEL CLAYTON

In "Maggie Pepper" Monday, March 31st

Monday, March 31st. Miss Ethel Clayton in "Maggie Pepper" Gardner Hunting, who picturized the story for Miss Clayton, is a brilliant scenarist, who has numerous photoplay successes to his credit.

Tuesday, April 1st. (Watch your step!) Fred Stone in "Johnny Get Your Gun." In this photoplay, Mr. Stone portrays the role of a cowboy motion picture performer who has several unique and interesting experiences in the development of an unusually interesting story.

Wednesday and Thursday, April 2nd and 3rd. Laughs and laughs and still more laughs in the "The Better 'Ole." Old Bill and his pals create a perfect hurricane of laughter in corking good picture. "The Better 'Ole" is typical of the rough-and-ready and rough-and-tumble soldiers of the old "Little Contemptible" army of Great Britain which fought and stemmed the Germans in the first great rush of the Huns over Belgium and France and attempt to override the world. It is a corking good picture—a peach of a production. It is so jammed with laughs and sentiment that it keeps you interested and entertained from start to finish without a single let-up.

EMPRESS THEATRE

Ask anyone where they have seen the latest in the show world, and it is a ten to one shot they will answer "At the Empress, of course." Harry Mitchell, the veteran vaudeville manager, is so well known to the people of the show world, that they write in advance and even skip their circuit bookings to play at his house, and thus Empress patrons always get the best and get it first. In addition to the high class vaudeville sketches and acts, Mr. Mitchell is booking the very best pictures and getting many of the first releases from the all-star agencies. Keep track of the Empress and you will be up in all the varieties, more than the "57" pickle kind, and all fresh and meritorious. Just now the Empress is offering a 15c price on their matinees that attracts great houses. Ladies and children especially enjoy these entertainments and enjoy a pleasant afternoon in the best ventilated, cleanest and most comfortable playhouse in the city. Get the Empress habit, it is worth while, and very reasonable in price.

LINDEN THEATRE

Always The Best — Better Than The Rest

Radiam Gold Fiber Screen

Thursday, March 27th. The brilliant star Norma Talmadge in another of her peerless screen creations, "The Probation Wife."

Friday and Saturday, March 28th and 29th. Bessie Barriscale in a dual of good and bad—in the photodrama success "A Trick of Fate." The finding of a meager 10c piece proved the turning point in the life of a Southern girl, who through her resemblance to a famous dancer is plunged into a maze of happenings. A most surprising climax marks the finish.

Billie Rhodes in "Hoop La" Sunday, March 30th

Sunday, March 30th Billie Rhodes in "Hoop La" Story of a little circus girl who is a protege of an old clown; with a real circus setting and every stunt shown. A treat for grown-ups and a feast for the kiddies. Also another new comedy.

Monday, March 31st. Constance Talmadge in "Experimental Marriage." One of her best.

Tuesday, April 1st. Taylor Holmes in "It's a Bear (this is the title and it's the truth). Some comedy.

Wednesday and Thursday, April 2nd and 3rd. Marguerite Clark in "Three Men and a Girl." Woman haters—bold, bare-faced despisers of the fair sex—did you ever meet one? The sort of a fellow who professes to detest every rustle of your petticoat.

SULLIVAN'S SENSE AND NONSENSE

If I Knew You

"If I knew you and you knew me,
If both of us could clearly see,
And with an inner sight divine
The meaning of your heart and mine,
I'm sure that we would differ less,
And clasp our hands in friendliness;
Our thoughts would pleasantly agree,
If I knew you and you knew me.

"If I knew you and you knew me
As each one knows his own self, we Could look each other in the face
And see therein a truer grace.
Life has so many hidden woes,
So many thorns for every rose;
The 'Why' of things our hearts would see,
If I knew you and you knew me."

Don't you think of changing them yet; we may have snow next week.

Casey says, "The moor praise a mon bestows on hissilf the wiser he is—not."

It is time for every self respecting hen to get to work now, only three weeks until Easter.

Yes, the spasm will be over next Tuesday, and then—the people will keep on paying for it all just the same.

There will be little moving this spring. Might as well be robbed by the landlord as the moving man, so what's the diff.?

When you meet one of those walthy moralists who says he "was happier when he was poor," just ask him to share a bit of his surplus, and see how unhappy you make him.

Casey's boy was told in Sunday school that if he was good he would go to heaven and have a gold crown, at which he remarked, "Huh, me father do be havin' wan now on his tooth and he don't care mooch about it aither, and he didn't go to hivin' to git ut, but to the dintist."

Here is one Dr. Robinson tells of a little Wentworth Ave. girl named Flora: Little Flora was complaining that her stomach felt badly. "Perhaps it's because it's empty," said her mother. "It might feel better if you had something in it." Not long afterward a certain well known Englewod minister called. In reply to a question as to his health he said that he was well but that his head felt rather badly that day. "Perhaps it's because it's empty," spoke up Flora. "It might feel better if you had something in it."

Three small clothiers' shops, owned by an Englishman, a Scotchman, and an Irishman, stood in a line together by the market. The Englishman decorated his windows with a large bill—"Great Sale of Fire Salvage Stock." The Scotchman put out a counter placard—"Great Sale of Bankruptcy Stock." Pat wondered what he could do, as fire and bankruptcy had been annexed by his rivals. After much thought he put up a sign over his doorway inscribed "Main Entrance."

Gerald E. Sullivan

At the Englewood Women's Club

Monday Morning, March 31st, Annual Meeting of Departments—Ross Crane of the Art Institute to Speak in the Afternoon

The most interesting of the musical lectures given before the Music department of the club was that on Monday morning, March 24th, when Miss Henriette Weber, who has given a series of lectures on "Modern Tendencies in Music," gave the last one for this year—"Music of Today in America." The solo artist assisting her was Miss Elizabeth Gordon, contralto, who sang three groups of songs, which were greatly enjoyed. She was accompanied by Mrs. Lewis. Miss Weber gave an extensive announcement of the coming grand opera season next fall. American composers are few, but every one with any ability will eventually come to the front. An aim is being made to try and encourage all American composers, and although some compositions have been presented, but have met with very little success as yet. Junior day was observed at the club in the afternoon. The singing of "Katy" by the assembly was sung enthusiastically, after which Mrs. E. Roy Haynes, secretary, read the minutes of the previous meeting. As was stated in last week's article, regarding nominations for president, the names of Miss Marie Hesse and Mrs. J. W. Parker appeared. The latter has since withdrawn her name from this office. Also the name of Mrs. J. H. Stephens will appear on the second vice-president ticket instead of one of the directors. Previous to the Junior play, Miss Norma Altermatt rendered a violin selection, Schubert's Ave Maria, which was very artistically done. She was accompanied in splendid manner by Miss Helen McAdao. These young ladies also furnished appropriate musical accompaniments during the rendition of the play, "Ali Baba and the Forty Thieves," given by the Junior members of the Englewood Woman's Club. The play was given in pantomime, and preceeding each act, of which there were four, Miss Ruth Griffith appeared as story teller, and her full, rich voice, with proper feeling for her text and given so it could be heard throughout the spacious hall, made it a delight to her hearers. The following young ladies took the principal parts: Dorothy Doggett, Margaret Campbell, Isabelle Nims, Dorothy Hibbard, Catherine Clark, Constance Folger, Esther Chase, Marion Weir, Eleanor Hunter, and Ruth Hagey. Misses Mary and Louise Hulbert were the Gong Bearers, and were heard each time before the raising of the curtain. Each of the above characters took her part in a most desirable and creditable manner, adding to the pleasure of the afternoon.

Mrs. Josephine R. Nims is chairman of the Juniors, and was given a curtain call for her part of directing the affair. The costumes were of quaint design, and many were made by Mrs. Bannister, Mrs. Nims and Mrs. Laura Wilcox Williams. The latter is property chairman and deserves her share of praise for the success of the afternoon. The Forty Thieves were: Francis Boal, Blanche and Ruth Buhlig, Mary L. Campbell, Virginia Farrar, Florence Gosh, Ruth Gurnett, Gladys Gudgel, Catherine Hibbard, Jean Scott, Ruth Shirley, Madeline Smith, Patricia Spees, Lillian Newton, Elizabeth Wentworth, Catherine Wood and Elizabeth Wyant.

Next Monday morning there will be an annual meeting of the departments. Ross Crane of the Art Institute will speak on "Art in Furnishing the Home." In the afternoon guests of honor will be the Public School Art Society.

Liberty Loan Organization

Mr. A. R. Bone gave a dinner Tuesday evening, March 18th, for the officers of the 32nd Ward Liberty Loan organization.

Because the war is ended these officers have not forgotten the call of country, the need of loyalty and of individual aid and patriotism.

It is satisfying to note that with one exception the same persons will officer the 32nd Ward Liberty Loan work, and from the enthusiasm evinced on Tuesday there is promise of big success for the Victory Loan.

Mr. Robert E. Barbee will be vice-chairman, N. E. district; Mr. David Winton, N. W. district; Mr. L. H. McCormick, East Central district; Mr. C. W. Woodrow, West Central district; Mr. G. W. Cummings, Southern district; Mrs. A. R. E. Wyant and Mrs. A. J. Sayers vice-chairmen-at-large; Mr. Fitzgerald, secretary, and Mrs. Charles S. Clark, publicity chairman.

It was found that 90 per cent of the same workers would do precinct soliciting, and in recognition of their services will receive government medals made from German cannons captured by our own unsurpassed doughboys.

It was arranged to have a large mass meeting with brilliant speakers in April.

The 32nd Ward is the first to start the organization to work, but when one knows that it is the largest ward in area in the United States and greater in population than any single city in Illinois with the single exception of Peoria, one appreciates how tremendous the task and how much credit is due Mr. A. R. Bone, the chairman.

David Winton left the dinner party early, as he is taking dancing lessons, and it is even whispered light weight boxing, to get in perfect physical trim to enter the coming campaign. L. H. McCormick has taken to bowling, but popular "Bob" Barbee just winks one merry eye. Will someone kindly report to the Publicity Chairman what this means?

At the Sunday Evening Club

Next Sunday evening the club audience will have the novel experience of listening to one of the most eloquent of Jewish speakers in the city in Rabbi Rudolph I. Coffee, of Temple Judea at Independence Blvd. and 12th St., whose subject will be "A League of Religious Forces." Dr. Coffee, who is one of the most learned as well as most eloquent of the Rabbis of the city, has long made a study of the subject of a league of religious forces that may work in harmony for the betterment of mankind, and his expressions on this interesting and beautiful topic will be most interesting and instructive. The Jewish people are noted for their conservative action and expression, yet here is one who occupies an exalted position in his faith and with his people who may speak almost authoritatively upon the attitude of the Jewish people on such a union. You should not miss this lecture. The musical soloist for the evening will be Blake H. Wilson, the noted basso, who will be assisted by Glenwood Preble's Sunday Evening Club choir.

The Fortnightly Club

The Fortnightly of Englewood will hold its next meeting at the home of Mrs. Robert E. Barker, 6643 Howard Avenue. Mr. Allin Albert will be the speaker.

Sacred Concert at St. Bernard's Church

A sacred concert and lecture will be given at St. Bernard's Church Sunday evening, April 6th, at 8 o'clock sharp. Rev. O'Mahoney will deliver an appropriate lecture, and the choir of the church under the direction of Norine Mulvihill will be assisted by Rev. P. F. Mahoney, the Boys choir and the High School choir, Rev. J. Edgar Bourget at the organ. Miss L. Van Braner, the harpiste, and other musicians are on the program.

"Listen for the Sound of the Trumpet"

A series of meetings from March 30th to April 20th will be held at the Englewood First M. E. church, 64th St. and Stewart Ave. every night at 7:30 sharp. Most vital questions will be discussed and decided. A fine chorus under song leader C. V. Hines will be at each meeting, and large crowds are expected. Dr. C. C. Travis will be the speaker, and you are cordially invited.

Dr. White Will Speak on "Belgium the Niobe of Nations"

Next Sunday evening at 7:45 Dr. Rufus A. White, the eloquent divine and minister of the People's Liberal church at 65th St. and Stewart Ave., will deliver his second lecture on "Belgium, the Niobe of Nations," and everyone who has a heart for suffering Belgium, and who has not will hear his lecture and so should your friends. See that they do. In the want to hear Dr. White's tribute to this unfortunate but noble nation. In pre-war days, Dr. White traveled extensively in Belgium and met her peoples in all conditions of life in their own homes and learned to know and love them, and after the war he visited the devastated land and with them mourned in the shadows of their ruined shrines and their homes. Probably no one could be selected to deliver this lecture to better advantage than Dr. White, his outspoken thoughts, his wide comprehension of the entire subject, and his fearless expose of what he believes to be wrong find the truest expression in his loyal American heart. You should hear this lecture and so should your friends. See that they do. In the morning at 1:30 Dr. White will preach on the subject "A child and a piece of coal." This should be novel and inviting enough to fill the large edifice, as all of Dr. White's lectures and sermons do, but we don't know whether he is going to refer to some of the alleged small loads of coal we have been paying good money for, or whether he has a pointed moral in view; most likely the latter. Better go and hear it anyway.

Oak Haven Old Peoples' Home

A business meeting of the auxiliary of the Oak Haven Old People's Home will be held at the Pilgrim Congregational church on the afternoon of Thursday, April 3, at 2:30 o'clock. All those interested are urged to attend this meeting and hear Dr. R. A. White tell of the plans now possible for building this home.

Announcement

To My Clientele and the Public Generally: I am pleased to state that I have equipped my office with the "Hanovia" Therapeutic Quartz Lamps. These lamps with the Ultra Violet Rays and Solar Light, which they produce have demonstrated their value in very many diseases, particularly all glanduar and all types of skin troubles. Sincerely, Dr. Albert Fisher, 6340 Stewart Ave. Phone Wentworth 2528.

"I. Himmel & Sons" Name of the New Firm

I. Himmel, after a successful career in the fur business in Englewood, where he has made a splendid reputation commercially and socially, has decided to take into co-partnership his two sons Irvin and Louis, who have long been associated with him in various capacities, and from this date their names will appear in all firm transactions.

The "boys" are to be congratulated, as also the father. The former deserve this recognition, and their active assistance in the business will be appreciated by the father.

Here's wishing the new firm of I. Himmel & Sons all prosperity and success, and citing them as an example of what wide-awake reliable business may be done in our town.

SCOTT M. HOGAN

PLATFORM

1. POLICE.
That crime can be held at its lowest ebb, I favor an increase in the police force of this city not only for the protection of the citizens and residents of the 31st Ward, but for the people at large.
2. HEALTH.
That the ward will be in the best sanitary condition possible, I favor appropriations for each ward, sufficient in amount to take care of the proper distribution of garbage and ashes.
3. SMALL PARKS.
I favor small parks, playgrounds, swimming pools and baths.
4. CAR FARES AND LOCAL TRANSPORTATION.
I am opposed to the unjust attempts of the powerful traction interests to take away from the people the right to determine what kind of local transportation they may have.
I favor the plan of one city, one 5c fare with universal transfers, and shall resist by all lawful methods the imposition of increased car fares upon the people of Chicago.
5. TELEPHONE RATES.
So far as lies in my power I will protect the interests of the people in the pending revision of telephone rates so that the existing rates may be lowered and the present poor service improved.
6. GAS.
I shall fight to secure for gas consumers, a reduction in price, and gas of better quality. I shall combat the arbitrary method used by the gas company to collect excessive bills, and shall fight for the refund of excess gas bills collected and shall make every effort to force the gas company to give the people justice.
7. HOME RULE FOR CHICAGO.
I favor home rule for Chicago in the regulation and control of public service corporations. I favor the repeal of the law which created the State Public Utilities Commission.
I favor a referendum vote by the people of Chicago on municipal ownership and operation, or either of them, of any or all of the public utilities in Chicago, and I pledge myself to do everything in my power to carry out the expressed will of the people.
8. JOBS FOR RETURNING SOLDIERS.
I shall co-operate with the City Council in securing jobs for returning soldiers who have rendered valiant service to our Government in its need, which cannot be estimated in terms of financial recompense.
9. CIVIL SERVICE ACT.
I favor the adoption by the present Legislature of an amendment to the City Civil Service Act granting to honorably discharged soldiers and sailors, who have served in the United States Army and Navy in time of war, preference in appointment or promotion, to positions in the classified service whenever their names appear upon an eligible register, the same as veterans of the Civil War now receive.
10. CLEAN, CONSTRUCTIVE AND ECONOMICAL ADMINISTRATION.
I pledge myself to work for a clean, constructive and economical administration of our municipal affairs.
